

dear fcc I amglad you are resturting i have been tring to learn code for 2 years now have spent several hundred dollars ihave passed the general written . I think it is time to move into the 21 century. Idont want to take code away from those who like to use it.But it is time for change not every one can learn morsecode . I have not give up on tring to pass the code yet . but until there is a change i will keep spending 12.00 dollars .Thanks for letting us comment.
